Party At Kekaha For Eric Knudsen

Kekaha, Kauai, May 30 .- A most successful and not soon to be forgotten dance was given on Saturday evening. May 21, by Mrs. V. Knudsen in honor of her son Eric, who leaves shortly for the States as one of the delegates from Hawaii to the National Convention.

The Homestead, always beautiful, was rendered still more so by being decorated with Japanese lanterns, the effect on coming into the grounds being fairy-like. The guests were reher daughter-in-law, Mrs. Augusts Knudsen and little Miss Knudsen. Dancing was held on the spacious land! which was handsomely decorated. Two rival orchestras furnished the dance music, interspersed with dreamy Ha-waiian songs. The colors of the many beautiful gowns bending with the soft lights of the Japanese lights, atmost persuaded one that they were in Fairyland. Among the most noticeable were Mrs. V. Knudsen in a striking gown of white satin with overdress of black lace, Mrs. Hansen looked remarkably well in a soft pale blue, with touches of black velvet. Mrs. Willie Rice was charmingly dressed in white whilst the prevailing color was pink. The evening was a great success, and showed in a marked degree the consideration of the hostess towards her visitors, every thing having been done that would give them pleasure, and make the occasion one to be long rem among the social events of the district.

GRAND JURY SITTING.

Territorial Grand Jury is in session oday and is working on the Walaiua Japanese murder case. Sheriff Andrew Cox of Waialua appears to present facts. The alleged shortage in the Former Commissioner E. S. Boyd and Chief Clerk Mahauju will not be taken up, it is said, until the Auditing Department has completed an investiga-tion of the Land Office books.
